WHO DO YOU THINK YOU ARE?

LEADERSHIP AND ANTI-BULLYING
SOLUTIONS
FOR SCHOOL AGE CHILDREN AND YOUTH

MISSION STATEMENT:

It requires courage to stand up for what is right. Kids 4 Kids programs help today's youth develop the skills needed to be successful and stand up for their values and to pursue excellence. We help youth see the importance of developing impenetrable character traits that lead to success through leadership.

"I have seen many anti-bullying presentations over my twenty years as an educator. It was nice to finally see a presentation that teaches children anti bullying strategies that work. The presentation was engaging, funny and informative. I highly recommend Scott Graham as a presenter and an educator."

KIDS4KIDS

Leadership After-School Programs

The Kids 4 Kids Leadership Program was established in 1993 and boasts a membership of over 26,000 children. The programs run after school or in the evenings, once a week for five weeks. Each session is 90 minutes in length. The program is designed for all children who want to develop leadership skills and who are between 6 to 13 years of age.

We use cooperative games, team building activities, original music and stories, role plays and discussions to make the program fun, engaging and informative. Parents are impressed with how excited their children are after attending just one session. There is no other program like the Kids 4 Kids Leadership Program.

IGNITE

Define Yourself!

IGNITE is a youth leadership program designed specifically for students who want to define their own cool. Today's youth are influenced by many negative influencers: the media, brands, vaping, social media and gaming. Ignite gives students an alternative.

IGNITE will give students strategies to build their brand to be positive, character-based and impenetrable. Youth need to have inner strength and a defined personal brand to be successful in this world.

IGNITE is for students who dare to stand up for what is right, not to be influenced by what other's think and take an opportunity that will give them an advantage in life.

Leadership topics will be relevant to today's youth: The Power of Responsibility, Building a Successful Personal Brand, Building Strong Relationships, Bullying, Anger Management, Peer Pressure and Social Media.

Heroes Academy Lunch Hour Club

Scott Graham has created captivating, energetic programs for children for over 26 years. Adults are amazed at how excited children are at learning how to lead and deal with life challenges like bullying. The Heroes Academy Lunch hour Program combines fun with learning using cooperative games, storytelling, role plays, team building activities and discussions. Heroes Academy energizes, captivate and lead children, helping them realize the potential they can't see.

"Heroes Academy is life changing. I thought what I read about this program was all hype, but I was amazed at what a huge impact it had on my students. Do yourself a favor. Get this program for your school before Scott books up for the year."

Heroes Academy Classroom Workshops

The Heroes Academy Classroom workshops are designed to teach students leadership skills. The first session helps define leadership and the characteristics of a leader. These include: Respect, Responsibility, Initiative, Integrity, Honesty and Trust. The second and third sessions discuss anti bullying strategies and the four session discusses anger management and peer pressure. Each session is an hour in length and designed to help develop a positive classroom environment and encourage students to develop their skills as leaders by helping other students with what they have learned. The sessions are interactive and fun.

Literacy Workshops

Kids 4 Kids literacy presentations inspire students to read and write. Scott Graham uses his struggles with reading and writing to captivate the imagination of students and help them find their inner writer. Scott is the author of six bestselling books, has produced a DVD, and is a singer/songwriter. He is also an individual who struggled with reading and writing as the result of having ADHD (Attention Deficit with Hyperactivity) and a learning disability. Scott realized at an early age that having ADHD and a learning disability was a gift and not an obstacle. He uses his story to inspire students. He also discusses the process of writing a book and how editing can be your best friend.

Parent Presentations

Every parent wants to protect their children from bullying. Scott Graham has spent the last 26 years helping students, staff and parents learn usable anti bullying strategies. Educated at the University of Waterloo, Scott has created a workshop that is powerful and useful. During this workshop Scott defines the difference between being mean and bullying, and what children are presently being taught. Parents learn usable anti bullying strategies that can be applied in the playground and online. Scott uses powerful stories that teach the importance of helping children become resilient and empowering them with anti bullying strategies that work.

Length of presentation: 90 minutes

Scott Graham has paired up with Gord Deppe from the successful musical group the Spoons. Scott and Gord give an interactive presentation that incorporates leadership, and anti bullying strategies. Scott delivers a highly impactful anti bullying presentation followed by Gord. Gord talks about how writing music became his voice that led him not only to write songs, but also to pen a bestselling book entitled, "Spoonfed." Gord brings his guitar with him and entertains students and staff with acoustic versions of his top ten hits and talks about his experiences with bands like the Police, Culture Club and Simple Minds. Both Scott and Gord would love to come to your school, meet your students and staff and put on a presentation you will not soon forget.

This presentation is a must for intermediate students.
